F A Q s

what experience do you have?

a little about me! i've been working in the bridal industry for 8 years now. it is without a doubt the most exciting, most rewarding area of work for me. i've worked with brides of all ages, from every corner of the country and am always expanding my range of skills to cater to everyone's styles and desires.

do you travel?

i do! i'm available to travel nationwide. travel within Aberdeenshire + Moray is included in my price, but a personalised quote can be provided if you're further afield! in cases of early ceremony times or large bridal parties, an overnight stay may be required - this will incur the price of the accommodation and an additional call out fee. next on the business bucket list is a destination wedding, please get in touch if this is something you'd like to discuss :)

can everyone have a makeup trial?

this can be done, but isn't always necessary. trials are highly recommended for the bride - it gives us a great chance to meet, to chat about your wedding and really get a feel for your style and your needs. trials are great for nervous brides or mums too, it's a great opportunity to put any concerns at ease. trials are held at my home studio.

my mum doesn't want a lot of makeup many mothers of the bride/groom have concerns about their makeup for the big day. they don't want to look 'caked', 'too heavy', 'like mutton dresses as lamb'. ha! do not worry, mature skin is one of my specialties and i can assure you that i will listen to every concern you have and show you that makeup can really enhance your natural beauty, without even looking like you're wearing any! it is important that your makeup is perfect for the big day as these photos last a life time!

i have acne/scarring/skin concerns

as an ex-acne sufferer, i completely understand the insecurities that can come with skin issues. Please be assured that together, we will produce a makeup look that you are comfortable with, that will empower you and fill you with confidence to walk down that aisle! it is important that you have a regular skin care regime - i'm no skin specialist, but i can certainly recommend skin care tips and products that will help maintain clean and glowing skin.

do you offer lashes?

lashes are completely included in your pricing, whether they be a strip, a bespoke individual set or a few to accentuate your own beautiful lashes. this is something we will discuss and experiment with at your trial.

can you just do my bridesmaids?

in my experience, there is no one size fits all when it comes to bridal parties. everyone's situations are different, which is why i offer my services to everyone. this could be just for bridesmaids, or just for mums and aunties. don't forget the grooms family too, or your guests!

F A Q s

how many people can you do?
if you have a large bridal party or lots of faces to paint on the morning of the wedding, the first thing to think about is time. i always suggest to plan for 45mins-1hr per face. this means that there's no rushing and everyone has time for tweaks, breakfast, prosecco and not to forget about hair and getting dressed! i always aim to have everyone's faces finished 1 hour before it's time to either leave for the venue, or time to walk down the aisle! the most i like to do is 6 faces for your morning, comfortably and on time!

can you recommend a 2nd MUA?
a second makeup artist is great for large parties! i can recommend someone of a similar style to myself to work along side on the day if need be - we will work together to ensure a seamless and cohesive look. the second artist should be booked and paid for separately.
